WASHINGTON, S. NEW YORK (A. L.), 3.

The Righlanders went on the rocks in the fog and mist yesterday. They were beaten by the Washingtons, who made a complete job of it. Joe Doyle girded his loins about him and fared forth to pitch for the New Yorks, but Joe didn't prove an able seaman on the New York craft and it was due largely to his inefficiency that the New Yorks lost. He was batted out of the box in the first inning and then and there the Nationals strung together a festoon of tallies ample enough to capsize the New Yorks

Doyle had undulating curves, but his control wasn't good and his speed was somewhat speedless. As many hits were made off him in his brief regime of onethird of an inning as were made off Ford in the eight and two-thirds innings of the latter's sojourn. The orb looked as hig as a pushbali when Boylo sent it up through the franclucent vapors which floated up from the Hudson, while the well controlled

GOODMAN BEATS DORMAN. Shows Superior Ring Science in Ten

Superior ring science and cleaner hitting enabled Jack Goodman to administer defeat to Jack Dorman in a ten round bout at the Fairmont A. C. last night. Goodman, who wants to fight any of the lightweights, out-Jeff and Johnson From Meeting There punched his opponent from the start, and the latter took a severe trimming practically all the way, suffering knockdowns in the fourth, fifth and sixth rounds. Dorman Opposition to the Jeffries-Johnson fight was as game as a pebble, however, and was will probably increase to formidable pro- atrong on his feet when the scrap ended.
